Hale R-I 4th Grade Visits State Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY _ Tene Eggers, her 4th grade class from Hale R-I, along with several parents made their way to Jefferson City on Thurs., April 28. The day started off with a visit to the “Runge Nature Center” where they also enjoyed their picnic lunch. Next stop was the Secretary of State’s Office where they watched the “Civil War Archives Alive” program. Following was a stop to visit with Rep Lair and to have their photo taken. Next on the agenda was a trip to the Whispering Gallery—and lastly a tour of the Capitol given by Tene before heading back home.
